

PRIVACY NOTICE

I. INTRODUCTION OF DATA CONTROLLER

In order to ensure the legality of its internal data protection processes and data subjects' rights, Hungarian University of Sports Science (hereinafter: University, Controller, Data Controller or "We") issues the following privacy notice.

Name of Data controller:	Hungarian University of Sports Science
Institutional identification nr.:	FI89399
Registered seat:	1123 Budapest, Alkotás u. 42-48.
Representative:	Prof. Dr. Tamás Sterbenz rector
Electronic address of the data protection officer (DPO):	tf-adatvedelem@tf.hu

As specified in Act CCIV of 2011 on national higher education (hereinafter: Nftv.), the Controller is an organization established for pursuing the core businesses of education, scientific research, and artistic activity – hereinafter jointly: higher education tasks –, which processes personal data required for performing this public task in the course of its operations by law.

The University processes personal data in compliance with applicable law, in particular the following:

- Act CXII of 2011 on informational self-determination and freedom of information (hereinafter: Infotv.);
- Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (hereinafter: Regulation or GDPR).

The Data Controller keeps personal data confidential and employs technical and organizational measures relating to the storage of processing of said data in order to ensure its safety.

Definitions

The conceptual structure of this information coincides with the interpretative definitions specified in Article 4 of the Regulation, supplemented at some points by the interpretative provisions of Infotv. Section 3.

When this information sets out provisions on data or data processing, they should be interpreted as personal data and the processing thereof.

II. PURPOSES OF DATA PROCESSING:

1. Registration for the 8th NETRISK Sport and Innovation Conference

The purpose of data processing

In 2025, the Hungarian University of Sports Science (hereinafter: the University) and the National Academy of Handball (NEKA) will organize the Sport and Innovation Conference (hereinafter: the Conference) for the eighth time, which is a key event in Hungarian sports science. The Conference aims to provide a platform for presenting innovative approaches to elite sports performance, as well as to highlight the role of active lifestyles and emerging sports disciplines.

The Conference will be held at the following venues:

- 8th October 2025 – National Academy of Handball, H-8630 Balatonboglár, Kodály Zoltán utca 12.
- 9th October 2025 – Hungarian University of Sports Science, H-1123 Budapest, Alkotás utca 42–48.

The operational tasks related to the organization of the Conference are carried out by the University, which also acts as the data controller for personal data processed in relation to the organization.

The Conference is open to all interested parties; however, participation is subject to prior registration.

The purpose of registration is to facilitate the organization and implementation of the Conference, particularly in terms of coordinating participation, assessing on-site logistics and catering needs, and ensuring communication with participants.

Processed personal data and the legal basis of the data processing

The following data fields are collected via the registration form available on the website of the Controller

(https://tf.hu/index.php?option=com\_rsform&view=rsform&formId=76&template=subpage):

- full name (for identification purposes);
- institution/company and position (for identification purposes)
- e-mail address (for communication purposes);
- participation data, i.e. indication of which day(s) the registrant wishes to attend (for the organization of the Conference);
- catering preferences, i.e. whether the registrant wishes to attend the buffet lunch organized by NEKA on the 8th of October (for the organization of the Conference).

The legal basis of the data processing is the performance of a task carried out in the public interest by the University, which in this case is the organization of a scientific event related to its academic activity for those interested in the Conference. This is in accordance with Article 6(1)(e) of the GDPR.

The source of personal data

The personal data are provided directly by the data subject during the registration process.

Access to personal data

The personal data of the data subject may only be known by the employees of the Data Controller, in order to perform their duties laid out in their job descriptions.

The University will provide NEKA with the number of participants attending the first day of the Conference and the number of those who have indicated catering needs. In this case, no personal data is being transferred.

Transfer of personal data to a third country or international organization

The Data controller does not transfer any personal data of the subject to a third country or international organization.

Time period of processing personal data

Personal data will be stored for one month following the conclusion of the Conference and will be deleted thereafter.

Automated decision making and profiling

No automated decision making and profiling is taking place during the data processing.

Provision of personal data

Provision of personal data is voluntary. However, without providing the requested information, registration for the optional programs cannot be completed, and participation in these programs will not be possible.

2. Photo and Video Recording at the Conference

The purpose of data processing

The University will take photo and video recordings at the Conference, which may be published on its online platforms for the purpose of documenting and reporting on the event. The objective of sharing these materials is to promote the Conference and, more broadly, the University's sport science activities to a wider audience.

The materials may be published on the following platforms operated by the University:

- the official University website: <https://tf.hu>;
- the University's official social media pages, in particular:
  - o Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/uniTestnevelesiEgyetem>
  - o Instagram: <https://www.instagram.com/testnevelesiegyetem/>
  - o TikTok: <https://www.tiktok.com/@testnevelesiegyetem>
  - o YouTube: <https://www.youtube.com/@tf1925/videos>

Processed personal data and the legal basis of the data processing

The image and activity of data subjects as captured in photo and video recordings.

The processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest, specifically the public reporting on the Conference and the promotion of the University's educational and academic activities. The legal basis is therefore Article 6(1)(e) of the GDPR.

Data subjects may object to the processing of their personal data, including the creation and publication of photo or video recordings.

The source of personal data

Recordings will be made by the University's contracted photo and video partners, RCS Comp Hungary Kft. and Hype Productions Kft.

Access to personal data

The personal data of the data subject may only be known by the employees of the Data Controller, in order to perform their duties laid out in their job descriptions.

In the case of Facebook and Instagram, Meta Platforms Ireland Ltd. acts as an independent data controller. Its privacy policy is available at <https://hu-hu.facebook.com/privacy/explanation> and <https://privacycenter.instagram.com/policy/>. Inquiries regarding data protection may be submitted through the following contact page: <https://www.facebook.com/help/contact/540977946302970>.

For the TikTok platform, TikTok Technology Limited (The Sorting Office, Ropemaker Place, Dublin 2, Ireland) acts as an independent data controller in accordance with its privacy policy, jointly with TikTok Information Technologies UK Limited. TikTok's privacy policy is available at <https://www.tiktok.com/legal/privacy-policy?lang=en#privacy-eea>. Data protection inquiries may be submitted here: <https://www.tiktok.com/legal/report/privacy?lang=en>.

In the case of YouTube, YouTube LLC acts as the data controller in accordance with the privacy policy and general terms of Google LLC, available at: <https://policies.google.com/privacy?hl=hu>. ### Data Processors

Our appointed photo partner, RCS Comp Hungary Kft. (registered office: 2724 Újlengyel, Petőfi Sándor utca 48.), acts as a data processor.

Our appointed video partner, Hype Productions Kft. (registered office: 1045 Budapest, Virág utca 24., 1st floor, door no. 2.), acts as a data processor.

The data processors process personal data only for the purposes defined by the Controller and in accordance with the Controller's instructions. They have no independent decision-making rights regarding the data and are bound by contractual obligations of confidentiality and data security.

Transfer of personal data to a third country or international organization

The Controller does not transfer personal data to third countries or international organisations. However, due to the nature of the internet, photo and video materials published online may be accessed globally. The Controller has no influence over the further use of such materials by third parties and therefore assumes no liability in this regard.

Time period of processing personal data

The recordings will not be deleted from the above platforms unless the data subject makes an explicit request or objects to the data processing.

Automated decision making and profiling

No automated decision making and profiling is taking place during the data processing.

III. THE RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECT

Right to be informed

The data subject has the right to be informed with regard to the data processing, which right is observed by the Data Controller by providing this privacy notice.

Right of access by the data subject

The data subjects shall have the right to obtain from the Data Controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning them are being processed, and, where that is the case, access to the personal data and the following information:

- a) the purposes of the processing;
- b) the categories of personal data concerned;
- c) the recipients or categories of recipient to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed, in particular recipients in third countries or international organisations;
- d) where possible, the planned period for which the personal data will be stored, or, if not possible, the criteria used to determine that period;
- e) the data subject is informed about their right to request from the controller rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing of personal data concerning the data subject or to object to such processing;
- f) the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority;
- g) where the personal data are not collected directly from the data subject, any available information as to their source;
- h) the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling, and, at least in those cases, meaningful information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and the envisaged consequences of such processing for the data subject.

The Controller shall, upon request, provide the data subject with a copy of the personal data processed.

Right to rectification

The data subjects shall have the right to obtain from the controller without undue delay the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning them. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, the data subject shall have the right to have incomplete personal data completed, including by means of providing a supplementary statement.

If a request is made to rectify (modify) personal data then the data subject needs to prove the authenticity of the data to be modified. Additionally, the data subject must verify that the person requesting rectification is authorised to do so. This is the only way for the data controller to verify the authenticity of the new data before modifying it.

Please report any changes in your personal data to the Data controller as soon as possible, facilitating the legality of data processing and the enforcement of your rights.

Right to erasure ('right to be forgotten')

The data subjects shall have the right to obtain from the Data controller the erasure of personal data concerning them without undue delay and the controller shall have the obligation to erase personal data without undue delay where one of the following grounds applies:

- a) the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- b) the data subject withdraws consent on which the processing is based, and where there is no other legal ground for the processing;
- c) the data subject objects to the processing and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing, or the data subject objects to the processing of personal data for direct marketing purposes;
- d) the personal data have been unlawfully processed;
- e) the personal data have to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation in Union or Member State law to which the controller is subject;
- f) the personal data have been collected in relation to the offer of information society services.

Right to restriction of processing

The data subject shall have the right to obtain from the Data controller restriction of processing where one of the following applies:

- a) the accuracy of the personal data is contested by the data subject, for a period enabling the controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
- b) the processing is unlawful and the data subject opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead;
- c) the controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by the data subject for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- d) the data subject has objected to processing pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override those of the data subject.

Right to object

If the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller (point (e) of Article 6(1) of the GDPR), the data subjects shall have the right to object, on grounds relating to their particular situation, at any time to processing of personal data concerning them, including profiling based on the relevant provisions.

Right to data portability

The data subjects shall have the right to receive the personal data concerning them, which they have provided to the Data Controller, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from the controller to which the personal data have been provided, where:

- a) the processing is based on consent of the data subject or on a contract according to Article 6 Paragraph (1) Point b) of the GDPR; and
- b) the processing is carried out by automated means.

PROCEDURES FOR ENFORCING THE RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

The above rights can be exercised by data subject by sending an electronic mail to this e-mail address: tf-adatvedelem@tf.hu, or regular mail to the seat of the Data Controller or in person at the seat of the Data Controller. The data subject shall be informed about the measure taken in response to the request within 1 month. If we are unable to fulfil the request, we inform the data subject in 1 month about the reasons of the rejection and the administrative and judicial redress rights of the data subject.

The rights of the deceased data subject may be enforced within five (5) years by an authorized person who possesses administrative provisions, or a statement towards the Data Controller included in a public document or full probative private document. If multiple such statements exist at the same Data Controller, then the statement made the latest will prevail. If the data subject has made no such legal statement, then a close relative – as defined in Act V of 2013 on the Civil Code – is still able to enforce certain rights of the deceased within five (5) years of death. These rights are defined in Article 16 (right to rectification) and Article 21 (right to object), as well as – if the data processing was unlawful during the life of the data subject, or the purpose of data processing has ceased with the death of the data subject – Articles 17 (right to erasure) and 18 (right to restriction of processing) of the GDPR. The close relative who exercises their right first will be entitled to enforce rights of the data subject as set forth in this Paragraph.

IV. THE RIGHT TO LODGE A COMPLAINT AND TO AN EFFECTIVE JUDICIAL REMEDY

In order to enforce their right to judicial remedy, the data subjects may take legal action against the Controller if they consider that the Data Controller or a data processor acting on behalf of or under the instructions of the Data Controller is processing their personal data in breach of the provisions of laws on the processing of personal data or of binding legal acts of the European Union. According to Article 79 (2) of the GDPR proceedings against the data controller shall be brought before the courts of the Member State where the data controller has an establishment, i.e., before the Budapest-Capital Regional Court (Hungary). The court shall deal with the case as a matter of priority. Alternatively, such proceedings may be brought before the courts of the Member State where the data subject has habitual residence. Court application: <https://birosag.hu/birosag-kereso>.

Without prejudice to judicial remedy, according to Article 77 (1) of the GDPR every data subject shall have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority, in particular in the Member State of data subject's habitual residence, place of work or place of the alleged infringement (i.e. in Hungary), alleging that the processing of personal data by the Data Controller has resulted in a violation of rights or an imminent threat thereof, or that the Data Controller is restricting the exercise of rights related to the processing of personal data or is refusing to exercise such rights.
